

Jessica Dyok

“I completed three work terms with SaskPower as part of my schooling with the Electrical Engineering Technology (EET) program. Being with SaskPower as a student gave me unique experiences, from touring Boundary Dam and seeing coal draglines up close to designing distribution facilities for the oilfield. These opportunities allowed me to gain valuable skills that I can apply to my position with distribution engineering.”

- Jessica Dyok, Electrical Engineering Technologist- Distribution Engineering