

Aboriginal Procurement Policy

Policy Statement:

This policy is a subset of the SaskPower Procurement Policy, and outlines SaskPower's commitment to procure goods and services from Aboriginal vendors in Saskatchewan. It provides guidance to business units, support groups and subsidiaries in working with Aboriginal people, communities, businesses and projects across all facets of SaskPower's business.

SaskPower seeks to:

- Promote positive relations with Aboriginal people, communities, and businesses on a province-wide basis.
- Involve Aboriginal people in economic opportunities and growth.
- Procure goods and services, and promote and participate in viable procurement opportunities with Aboriginal vendors.
- Consider the role of Aboriginal business entities within Saskatchewan, in procurement opportunities for SaskPower power generation and transmission projects.

Eligibility:

This policy applies to the directors, officers, employees, and contractors of SaskPower and its subsidiaries.

Conditions/Prerequisites:

- none
